This consent, often granted by the Lead Local Flood Authority (LLFA), is needed for both permanent and temporary works, including alterations to culverts, weirs, or other obstructions.

Most changes of use require permission, but some are permitted under specific circumstances. The need for an application depends on whether the change is considered 'material' and the specific regulations from each LPA.
- ☐ Regulation 3 planning application – Regulation 3 of the Town and Country Planning General Regulations 1992 allows a local planning authority to grant planning permission for its own development, essentially acting as both the applicant and the decision-maker. This means a council can approve development projects on land they own, even if it might otherwise be restricted.
- ☐ Regulation 4 planning application – Where a planning authority applies for permission to develop land they own or have an interest in, but do not intend to develop themselves.
